

College and Career Readiness: GRISD Graduates will

- Be proficient in reading, writing, listening, and speaking
- Be proficient in the responsible use of digital media to effectively communicate, analyze, and create new knowledge
- Be proficient in problem solving and critical analysis and willing to take risks, learn from mistakes, and adapt to new information
- Be proficient in research skills and capable of determining whether information is relevant, valid, and reliable
- Attain 20 hours of college credit or a technical certificate upon high school graduation

Global Workplace Readiness: GRISD Graduates will

- Connect and correlate knowledge and skills through real-world applications in core as well as enrichment content
- Construct new ideas through original and creative thinking
- Commit to personal learning and forward thinking
- Adapt responsibly to changing global community demands
- Show proficiency in personal financial literacy

Personal Success Readiness: GRISD Graduates will

- Practice behaviors that exhibit integrity, respect, and commitment contributing to a well balanced lifestyle
- Be responsible and show initiative through positive actions
- Be self-motivated and exhibit self-discipline and perseverance
- Communicate effectively and collaborate with others, showing a willingness to connect with individuals of different backgrounds, cultures, and abilities
- Be prepared for the unknown, empowered to face challenges, and committed to life-long learning
- Volunteer and participate in community service activities

Excellence in Education

